Heart & Hands Awards

A way for the entire community to say "THANKS!" to the volunteers who make Whatcom County a tremendous, caring community!

Do you know folks that deserve special thanks for their contributions of time and talent – those who volunteer to make this a special community?

Nominate them for Whatcom Volunteer Center's

Heart & Hands Awards Celebration

To be held at Bellingham High School Commons
Sunday, April 25, 2010 at 2 p.m.

Who might you nominate?

An individual who works on community trail and stream restoration • A youth member of your congregation who tackles a community problem • A volunteer who helps with chores for elderly individuals • A classroom volunteer who listens to kids reading • An employee who helps a local nonprofit with painting and landscaping work • A friend who creates websites for nonprofits • The 4th- grader who taught you how to use a computer • The Board member who went above and beyond the call of duty • An intern who developed a whole new program for your clients

This year you can also nominate organizations you believe do a great job of working with volunteers!

It's easy:

Attach a one-page narrative:*

- Share a little with us about how this person has inspired you and why the nominee is deserving of special thanks.
- Give specific examples of the nominee's volunteer activities.
- For organizations, nominations must be from volunteers – tell us what makes their work with volunteers exemplary. Give us a contact person and their phone, too, please.

Note that we do not accept group nominations. You must submit a nomination form and narrative for each person nominated.*
